FOOTBALL YEARBOOK

DUCKS AIM TO “DOUBLE DOWN” IN 2025

BELOW: Oregon tight end Kenyon Sadiq hurdles a Penn State defender for the first of two touchdowns in the 2025 Big Ten Championship Game.

The Oregon football team entered its first season in the Big Ten Conference in 2024 looking to prove to its new league, and the nation, that the Ducks were “Mighty Different.”

Oregon left no doubt, putting together a perfect 12-0 regular season before defeating Penn State in the Big Ten Championship Game and earning the No. 1 seed in the College Football Playoff. While the storybook season came to an end in the CFP Quarterfinal at the Rose Bowl Game, the Ducks made it clear that they belong in the conversation as one of the nation’s elite programs.

The Ducks are looking to “double down” in 2025, as head coach Dan Lanning declared at Big Ten Media Day in Las Vegas. While the roster is much different from 2024 following a historic NFL Draft that saw a record 10 Ducks selected, along with an accomplished graduating senior class, Oregon has restocked its roster with a highly-ranked recruiting class and an experience group of transfers.

“We have done an unbelievable job of building this team over time,” Lanning said. “You look at our success season to season, and as this team has grown, the process works. We’re close. We’ve been able to accomplish a lot.”

“That’s really what’s going to feed our program is believing in the process we have. We got great buy-in from our players. It is a new cast of characters. You’re going to see new people on the field, which is exciting.”

Oregon is 35-6 in three seasons under Lanning, with double-digit wins each year. Positive steps forward have been taken every year, and the Ducks go into 2025 with a deep and talented roster and a confidence that they can “double down” on what was one of the greatest seasons in program history in 2024.

OFFENSE

The primary question for the Ducks entering 2025 will center around the quarterback position, where Oregon is tasked with replacing a second straight Heisman Trophy finalist in Dillon Gabriel. UO boasts a deep and talented group of young signal callers, with redshirt sophomores Dante Moore and Austin Novosad leading the way. Moore started five games for UCLA as a freshman in 2023 before transferring to learn behind Gabriel in 2024, and Novosad boasts the most Oregon experience in his third year in the program.

Up front, Oregon lost four of its five starting offensive linemen from a year ago — including a first-round NFL Draft pick in Josh Conerly Jr. — but brought in a trio of highly-regarded transfers in Isaiah World, Emmanuel Pregon and Alex Harkey. Along with returners such as Iapani Laloulou, Dave Iuli and Matthew Bedford, Oregon’s O-Line should once again be among the most complete in the nation.

Supporting students is in our playbook.

Tight end Terrance Ferguson was a second-round draft choice following a historic Oregon career, setting the stage for junior Kenyon Sadiq to take on a larger role in the offense. Sadiq flashed his elite athleticism with a pair of touchdowns in the Big Ten Championship Game, including a hurdle over a Penn State defender that quickly went viral.

Sadiq and fellow tight ends such as returner Roger Saleapaga and transfer Jamari Johnson will be weapons for the UO quarterbacks along with a young but talented receiver group, which lost veterans Tez Johnson and Traeshon Holden from a year ago. Evan Stewart is the most accomplished receiver on the roster, but an offseason injury will create more opportunities for other players to carve out significant roles.

Gary Bryant Jr. will be thrust into a leadership role as the most experienced player in the receiver room, and returners like Justius Lowe, Kyler Kasper, Dillon Gresham and Jeremiah McClellan will have plenty of opportunities to make plays. Oregon also brought in an experienced transfer in Malik Benson from Florida State, and highly-regarded freshmen Dakorien Moore and Cooper Perry will have a chance to contribute from the get-go.

At running back, Oregon brought in transfer Makhi Hughes in the wake of Jordan James entering the NFL Draft. Hughes has rushed for 1,000-plus yards in each of the last two seasons for Tulane, and will be complimented by redshirt senior Noah Whittington to create another intimidating 1-2 punch in the UO backfield. The Ducks also bring back Jayden Limar, Jay Harris and Da'Jaun Riggs, and talented freshmen Dierre Hill Jr. and Jordon Davison round out a very deep running back room.

DEFENSE

Oregon's defensive line saw three players go in the first three rounds of the 2025 NFL Draft, including Derrick Harmon at No. 21 overall, but the Ducks still return one of the nation's top pass-rushing duos in juniors Matayo Uiagalelei and Teitum Tuioti. Uiagalelei led the Big Ten in the regular season with a career-high 10.5 sacks, while Tuioti added 7.5 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks.

With the departure of Harmon, Jamaree Caldwell and Keyon Ware-Hudson, the Ducks look to junior A'Mauri Washington to step into a larger role while also bringing in a notable transfer in Bear Alexander. Underclassmen such as Terrance Green, Tionne Gray and Jericho Johnson, among others, will also have opportunities to earn spots in the rotation.

At the second level, the loudest and most commanding voice on the defense — and arguable the team — is gone with the departure of Jeffrey Bassa. Oregon is fortunate to return Eugene native and two-sport star Bryce Boettcher, who was drafted by the Houston Astros in the MLB Draft but chose to return for his final season of football eligibility.

Boettcher was Oregon's leading tackler in 2024 and the winner of the Burlsworth Trophy, given to the nation's best player who began his career as a walk-on. He and redshirt junior Devon Jackson will lead the way in the inside linebacker room, with young players like Jerry Mixon, Kamar Mothudi, Dylan Williams and Brayden Platt competing for opportunities.

The largest turnover in the Oregon defense comes in the secondary, where the Ducks lose experienced starters such as Tysheem Johnson, Kobe Savage, Jabbar Muhammad and Nikko Reed. Oregon brought in one of the nation's top safeties in Purdue transfer Dillon Thieneman, as well as experienced starting corners in Theran Johnson (Northwestern) and Jadon Canady (Ole Miss).

Jahlil Florence is back in the mix after missing 2024 due to injury, looking to return to his 2023 form when he was a starter for the Ducks. Peyton Woodyard, Kingston Lopa, Sione Laulea and Ify Obidegwu appear poised to take on larger roles in their second years in the program, and the Ducks' freshmen class is loaded with talent in the secondary with players like Na'eem Offord, Trey McNutt and Dorian Brew.

BELOW: Eugene native and two-sport athlete Bryce Boettcher does a baseball celebration in Oregon's win over Washington. Boettcher was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 2024 MLB Draft.

BRYCE BOETTCHER

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Ducks return nearly their entire specialist group from 2024, including kickers Atticus Sappington and Andrew Boyle, punter Ross James and long snapper Luke Basso. The Ducks also signed transfer punter James Ferguson-Reynolds from Boise State, giving them arguably the top punting room in the nation.

Noah Whittington should be a major weapon once again for the Ducks in the kick return game, where he had a 100-yard run to help Oregon beat Boise State early in 2024. The biggest position of intrigue on special teams will be who takes over as the primary punt returner after Tez Johnson's departure and Evan Stewart's injury.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

This story is extracted from EPISODE 128 of the MIGHTY OREGON PODCAST, hosted by ROB MOSELEY. To listen to the full interview between Rob and Dante Moore, visit GoDucks.com or search Mighty Oregon Podcast on Spotify or wherever you get your podcasts.

DANTE MOORE

Dante Moore has always been a star when it comes to his ability on the football field. A highly recruited, five-star player coming out of Michigan in the 2023 recruiting class, Moore was initially committed to Oregon and first-year head coach Dan Lanning.

But when UO offensive coordinator Kenny Dillingham left to take the head coaching job at Arizona State, Moore reopened his commitment and ultimately signed on to play for former Oregon head coach Chip Kelly at UCLA.

Moore was thrust into a starting competition immediately for the Bruins, a daunting task for most true freshmen but one that was familiar for a quarterback who started as a freshman in high school on a team that was coming off a state championship. Moore said he experienced some “rookie mistakes” early in his prep career before going on to throw for 9,880 yards and 135 touchdowns with just 20 interceptions across four years.

“As I went through high school, of course I got way better,” Moore said. “My senior year of high school, I felt so comfortable. I felt like I knew the whole field and what everybody was doing.”

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

Moore came off the bench in his first collegiate game for UCLA, throwing for 143 yards and two touchdowns with an interception. He was named the starting quarterback the following week against San Diego State, earning Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors after completing 17-of-27 passes for 290 yards and three scores.

But those rookie mistakes began to pop up again for Moore, who would ultimately appear in nine games while making five starts as a true freshman, throwing for 1,610 yards and 11 touchdowns with nine interceptions.

"The biggest thing that I learned going through college football as a true freshman and playing was that it's extremely hard," Moore said. "It's 22 and 23 year olds out there and I had just turned 18, not saying age is an excuse, but I was just out there playing freely while not knowing a ton about college coverages and the way players moved and the speed of the game."

Looking for a fresh start both in football and in the wake of a breast cancer diagnosis for his mom, Moore entered the transfer portal and returned to the school he was initially committed to. He embraced a different role as a backup behind eventual Heisman Trophy finalist Dillon Gabriel, taking a year to learn while knowing his time would eventually come.

"I told Coach Stein and Coach Lanning after hitting the portal that the biggest thing I needed was development," Moore said. "I knew they had the resources here, I knew they had the knowledge, and Coach Stein has played the quarterback position. Really just getting developed was the biggest thing in my decision."

"I TOLD COACH STEIN & COACH LANNING AFTER HITTING THE PORTAL THAT THE BIGGEST THING I NEEDED WAS DEVELOPMENT, I KNEW THEY HAD THE RESOURCES HERE, I KNEW THEY HAD THE KNOWLEDGE, AND COACH STEIN HAS PLAYED THE QUARTERBACK POSITION. REALLY JUST GETTING DEVELOPED WAS THE BIGGEST THING IN MY DECISION."

in talking like I was going to be the starting quarterback. We pushed each other in the weight room, in the facility every day."

With Gabriel off to the NFL, Moore again has the opportunity to take the reigns as a starting quarterback for a major college football program. But after a year focused on development, Moore has learned to stay present and focus on the task at hand.

"Overall, I say it's always good to think ahead," Moore said, "but right now, I'm just living in the moment."

Moore appeared in five games for the Ducks in 2024 while utilizing a redshirt. He got a front-row seat as Gabriel, the most experienced quarterback in college football history, led Oregon to an undefeated regular season and a Big Ten Championship.

"I think I did a really good job last year, even though I never thought of myself as a backup," Moore said in the spring of 2025. "I always wanted to push to see if I can push Dillon to better himself and he can push me to better myself. I wasn't a mouse. I came

DAN LANNING

Dan Lanning was officially announced as the 35th head coach in Oregon football history on December 11, 2021, as athletic director Rob Mullens brought one of college football's brightest young coaches and top defensive minds to Eugene to lead the Ducks.

Lanning has led Oregon to a terrific 35-6 overall record while posting double-digit wins in each of his first three seasons. He owns the most wins by any Oregon head coach through his first three seasons, and his 36 wins since 2022 rank third among all FBS head coaches.

On March 7, 2025, Mullens announced that UO agreed to terms on a contract extension that will keep Lanning in Eugene through the 2030 season.

"Oregon football has reached historic heights under Dan's leadership," Mullens said. "His relentless commitment to providing a first-class student-athlete experience is evident in the culture he has fostered within his program. His dedication to this university, our student-athletes and the city of Eugene has put Oregon football in position to compete for championships on a yearly basis."

In his first season as the Ducks' head coach, Lanning led Oregon to a 10-3 record and a win over North Carolina in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl. Lanning became the third Oregon head coach to win 10 games in his first season, and the first since Mark Helfrich in 2013.

The Ducks took another step forward under Lanning in 2023, going 12-2 overall with an appearance in the final Pac-12 Championship Game and a win over Liberty in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. Lanning improved to 22-5 through his first two seasons in Eugene and became just the second Oregon head coach to win each of his first two bowl game appearances.

Lanning led the Ducks to a historic season in 2024, as Oregon went undefeated in the regular season before winning the Big Ten Championship in its first year in the conference. UO earned the No. 1 seed in the newly-expanded 12-team College Football Playoff while matching the program record with 13 wins. Lanning joined Chip Kelly as the only Oregon head coaches ever to post back-to-back 12-win seasons.

PATH TO EUGENE

Lanning came to Oregon after spending the previous four seasons at Georgia, including the last three as defensive coordinator. He directed the top defense in the nation in his three seasons as defensive coordinator, and helped lead the Bulldogs to the national championship before taking over full-time as Oregon's new head coach.

A two-time finalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach, Lanning joined Georgia in 2018 as outside linebackers coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator.

A Missouri native, Lanning began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 2011, and also had stints at Arizona State (2012-13), Sam

Houston State (2014), Alabama (2015), and Memphis (2016-17). He made his on-field collegiate coaching debut at Sam Houston State as the defensive backs coach.

As an assistant coach, Lanning has been to and won four of the New Year's Six bowl games, including national titles with both Georgia in 2022 and Alabama in 2015. In four years with Lanning on staff, Georgia also won three SEC Eastern Division titles (2018-19, 2021) and reached back-to-back Allstate Sugar Bowls (2018-19), the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (2020), and the Capital One Orange Bowl (2021, CFP Semifinal).

BIG TEN CHAMPS (2024)

Lanning took the Ducks to historic new heights in his third season, leading Oregon to the Big Ten Championship in the program's first year in the league. The Ducks went a perfect 12-0 in the regular season for the second time in program history, joining the 2010 team that played in the national championship game. Oregon was the only FBS team to go undefeated in the regular season in 2024.

Oregon defeated No. 3 Penn State, 45-37, in the Big Ten Championship Game to secure the conference title, the fifth league championship game victory in program history. The Ducks matched the program record with their 13th win, tying the 2014 team, and also secured the No. 1 seed in the first year of the 12-team College Football Playoff.

The Ducks' path to the Big Ten title and the top seed in the CFP was a challenging one, as they secured wins over three teams that made the 12-team CFP field. Oregon pulled out narrow victories over Boise State (No. 3 seed) and Ohio State (No. 8) in the regular season before taking down Penn State (No. 5) in the Big Ten Championship Game.

Lanning guided the Ducks to a No. 1 national ranking for the first time since 2012, earning the top spot ahead of a win over No. 20 Illinois on Oct. 26 and holding it throughout the rest of the season. UO won six straight games as the nation's top-ranked team before falling to Ohio State in the CFP Quarterfinal at the Rose Bowl Game to close the year.

Oregon's win over No. 2 ranked and eventual national champion Ohio State on Oct. 12, 2024, went down as one of the most significant regular-season victories in program history. The No. 3 Ducks secured their highest-ranked win ever in Autzen Stadium while matching the highest-ranked win in program history, earning UO's ninth win all-time over a top-five team. The victory came in front of an Autzen Stadium record 60,129 fans, with most of them rushing the field to cap a day that ended with thousands of fans flooding the quad on campus for ESPN's College GameDay.

Lanning led Oregon to an undefeated home schedule for the second year in a row, going 7-0 while playing in front of four of the 14 largest crowds in Autzen history. Oregon extended its home winning streak to 15 games and improved to 38-1 (.974) at home since an overtime loss to Stanford on Sept. 22, 2018. The Ducks also went 2-0 in nonconference play at home to extend the nation's longest active nonconference home winning streak to 34 games.

After losing Heisman Trophy finalist and first-round NFL Draft pick Bo Nix at quarterback, Lanning and the Ducks once again went to the transfer portal to find an experienced signal caller. UO brought in sixth-year QB Dillon Gabriel, who followed in Nix's footsteps and became the fifth Duck ever to be a Heisman Trophy finalist while also being named the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year.

Gabriel made college football history in his lone season in Eugene, becoming the FBS all-time leader in total touchdowns (189) while tying Case Keenum for the all-time passing touchdowns record (155). He also finished second all-time in career passing yards (18,722) and total yards (19,931), and broke Nix's previous record for career starts by an FBS quarterback with 63. Gabriel threw for a career-high 3,857 yards for the Ducks while matching his career high with 30 touchdown passes.

For the second year in a row, Oregon's defense proved to be a strength of the team. The Ducks ranked 16th nationally in scoring defense (19.4 PPG) and 15th in total defense (315.9 YPG) while tying for fifth in pass breakups (63) and 14th in sacks (40). Sophomore Matayo Uiagalelei led the Big Ten in the regular season with 10.5 sacks, and junior Derrick Harmon led all FBS interior defensive linemen with 55 total pressures generated.

The 2024 team produced a program record 10 NFL Draft selections, including two more first-round picks in Derrick Harmon (No. 21 overall) and Josh Conerly Jr. (No. 29 overall).

GOOD TO GREAT (2023)

Following a solid 10-win season in 2022 to begin his Oregon career, Lanning tasked his team with going from “good to great” in year two. The Ducks were once again in the thick of the College Football Playoff conversation, reaching the final Pac-12 Championship Game and closing the year with a win over Liberty in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl to finish 12-2 overall.

The 2023 Ducks were arguably the most complete team in the nation, leading the country in average scoring differential at plus-27.71 and finishing as one of just three schools in the top 10 nationally for both scoring offense (2nd, 44.2 PPG) and scoring defense (9th, 16.5 PPG). UO also tied for fourth nationally with a plus-11 turnover margin.

Oregon’s potent offense was led by quarterback Bo Nix for the second season in a row, as the fifth-year senior put together one of the greatest seasons ever by a UO quarterback. Nix was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and became the fourth Duck ever to be invited to New York as a Heisman Trophy finalist on the strength of a record-breaking season. Nix set a new NCAA single-season record for completion percentage at 77.45 (364-of-470), and also broke the Oregon single-season records for completions, passing yards (4,508) and passing touchdowns (45).

The dynamic UO offense led the nation in passing offense (346.9 YPG) behind Nix, while also ranking second in total offense (531.4 YPG) and finishing as the only team in the country to score at least 30 points in every game. The Ducks led the nation in fewest sacks allowed with five for the second year in a row, and also led the nation with 26.6 first downs per game.

Nix wasn’t the only Duck to make history in 2023, as receiver Troy Franklin shattered UO single-season records for receiving yards (1,383), receiving touchdowns (14) and 100-yard receiving games (8). Fellow receiver Tez Johnson also broke the program record for receptions in a season with 86, and center Jackson Powers-Johnson became the fifth unanimous first-team all-American in program history while winning the Rimington Trophy as the nation’s top center.

Oregon’s electric offense was supported by a vastly improved defensive unit, which took a massive leap forward in Lanning’s second season. The Ducks were one of just six teams in the nation to give up more than 10 points no more than eight times, and finished ninth in the country in scoring defense (16.5 PPG) after ranking 74th in 2022.

The UO defense ranked 11th nationally with just 102.57 rushing yards allowed per game, the fewest by an Oregon team since 1989, following a 2022 season in which it ranked 102nd in ground defense. The Ducks also ranked 22nd nationally in total defense (318.4 YPG), an improvement of 49 spots from 2022.

Lanning’s 2023 team produced a then-program-record eight NFL Draft selections, led by Nix with the No. 12 overall pick by the Denver Broncos. Powers-Johnson went in the second round to the Las Vegas Raiders, while the quintet of Franklin (Denver), Khyree Jackson (Minnesota), Brandon Dorlus (Atlanta), Evan Williams (Green Bay) and Bucky Irving (Tampa Bay) all went in a span of 23 picks in the fourth round. Jamal Hill (Houston) was taken in the sixth round to complete Oregon’s historic draft.

10-WIN DEBUT (2022)

Lanning had the Ducks in the national conversation throughout his first season as a head coach in 2023, guiding Oregon to 10 wins and a victory in the SDCCU Holiday Bowl.

After a tough loss to his former team and the eventual national champion Georgia Bulldogs to open his Oregon career, Lanning and the Ducks bounced back to win eight consecutive games and were in the thick of the College Football Playoff race. A late-season injury to quarterback Bo Nix loomed large in a pair of tight losses to Washington and Oregon State, but the Ducks finished strong with a comeback win over North Carolina in the Holiday Bowl.

Despite his background in elite defense, the calling card for Lanning’s first Oregon team was an electric offense led by Nix. The Ducks were the only team in the nation to rank in the top 20 in both rushing offense (12th, 215.77 YPG) and passing offense (17th, 284.8 YPG) while tying for ninth in scoring offense (38.8 PPG), and boasted the country's top offensive line with just five sacks allowed.

Nix was phenomenal in his first season as a Duck, before announcing he would return to Oregon for a fifth season of college football in 2023. The UO quarterback ranked fifth in the nation with 44 total touchdowns while setting a new UO single-season record for completion percentage at 71.9, second-best in the nation. Nix led all FBS quarterbacks with 14 rushing touchdowns, the second-most ever in a season by an Oregon quarterback.

Lanning's inaugural Oregon defense was led by a trio of NFL Draft picks in cornerback Christian Gonzalez, defensive end DJ Johnson and linebacker Noah Sewell. Gonzalez led Oregon with four interceptions and went on to be the No. 17 overall pick by the New England Patriots. Johnson led the Ducks in sacks and was a third-round pick by the Carolina Panthers, and Sewell capped a productive three-year Oregon career as a fifth-round pick by the Chicago Bears. The trio made up half of a six-player NFL Draft class in 2023, the most for the Ducks since 2009.

Lanning became the fifth head coach in Oregon history to reach 10 wins in a season, and just the third to do so in his debut season in Eugene.

ELITE DEFENSE

Lanning oversaw the nation's top overall defense in his three seasons as Georgia's defensive coordinator, including a historically dominant unit in 2021 as he helped lead the Bulldogs to their third-ever national championship and first since 1980.

In three seasons with Lanning coordinating the defense, Georgia led the country in combined scoring defense (13.6 points per game) and rushing defense (75.7 yards per game), while also ranking No. 2 in total defense (284.3 yards per game).

Lanning's 2021 Georgia defense led the nation in scoring defense by a wide margin at just 10.2 points per game, 4.6 points per game better than any other team in the country. During 12 regular season contests, Georgia's opponents mustered just 6.9 points per game.

The Bulldogs' defense was especially impressive during the 2021 College Football Playoff, with Lanning's unit fueling the program to the national title. Georgia held Michigan to just 11 points in the CFP semifinal, and then limited an Alabama offense that averaged 41.4 points per game to just 18 points in the national title game.

The 2021 Georgia defense allowed just 16 touchdowns all season under Lanning, five fewer than any other team in the country. The Bulldogs held opponents to 10 points or less nine times in 15 games, and Georgia played 11 full quarters to start the season before surrendering a touchdown.

Georgia's historic 2021 season also saw the Bulldogs lead the nation in red-zone defense (62.5 score %), while ranking second in total defense (267.9 YPG), rushing defense (78.87 YPG) and yards allowed per play (4.15), and fourth in sacks (49.0). Georgia also had a stout passing defense, ranking 12th overall at 189.1 yards per game.

Lanning also directed the nation's top scoring defense in 2019 — his first year as defensive coordinator — when the Bulldogs allowed just 12.6 points per game. Georgia led the country in rushing defense (74.6 YPG) and set a school record with an FBS-best two rushing touchdowns allowed, while ranking second nationally in yards allowed per play (4.29) and third in total defense (275.7 YPG).

PLAYING CAREER & PERSONAL

Born in North Kansas City, Missouri, Lanning spent his playing days as a linebacker at William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. He earned two Bachelor of Science degrees in physical education and secondary education in 2008.

Lanning began his coaching career at Park Hill South High School in Missouri after earning his degree, spending three seasons as the special teams, defensive backs and wide receivers coach. During that time, he completed coursework for his Master's degree in secondary administration from William Woods University in Fulton, Missouri.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons — Caden, Kniles, and Titan.

FIFTY YEARS ON THE SIDELINE:

THE ENDURING PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN SLOCUM ORTHOPEDICS AND OREGON ATHLETICS

In the world of college athletics, some of the most influential partnerships operate quietly in the background. Since 1967, Slocum Orthopedics has served as the official orthopedic provider for the University of Oregon. This remarkable relationship has been shaped by a shared investment in athlete health, performance, and recovery.

The Oregon-Slocum collaboration has its roots in a personal moment. In the late 1950s, Dr. Donald B. Slocum was a practicing orthopedic surgeon in Eugene when a knee injury suffered by his son opened Slocum's eyes to how little was understood about sports-related injuries. That personal experience sparked a professional transformation. Soon, he began working closely with University of Oregon football coach Len Casanova and his staff. What started as a search for better answers turned into the foundation of one of the most influential sports medicine partnerships in the country.

By the mid-1960s, Slocum's team was working regularly with University of Oregon coaching staff and trainers. Their role extended beyond injury care to include prevention, biomechanics, and recovery strategy. In 1967, the University made the partnership official. That was the same year, Autzen Stadium opened to the public. The timing marked a transition for Oregon Athletics toward a more integrated approach to athlete care and a stronger support system for long-term performance.

DEVELOPING A MODEL FOR ATHLETE-CENTERED ORTHOPEDICS

The Oregon-Slocum relationship evolved into one of the earliest examples of an orthopedic team fully embedded within a collegiate athletic department. Slocum physicians became consistent contributors. They were present during practices, and responsible for evaluating injuries, performing surgeries, and coordinating recovery plans.

Rather than being outside consultants, their daily presence created continuity in care and decision-making that elevated the overall system. Athletic trainers, strength staff, and physicians operated as one unit. That structure helped Oregon Athletics stay focused on both immediate needs and long-term health.

Innovation came naturally in that environment. Dr. Slocum began with football coach Len Casanova in the late 50s and expanded his collaboration to UO Track coach Bill Bowerman in the 60s. Through their work analyzing running form and injury risk, Dr. Slocum aided coach Bowerman in refining the upright running style that later defined Oregon's track success and contributed to Olympic achievement. Dr. Slocum's surgical innovations, particularly in reconstructing unstable knees, set national standards. In 1972, Dr. Slocum co-founded the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine (AOSSM), helping establish sports medicine as a recognized orthopedic subspecialty.

CONTINUITY, TRUST, AND DEEP INSTITUTIONAL KNOWLEDGE

A defining strength of the Oregon-Slocum partnership has been its continuity. Generations of physicians have built on the foundation laid by Dr. Slocum, Dr. Stan James, and Dr. Robert Larson.

Today, the partnership remains active and collaborative. Slocum physicians Dr. Jeffrey Tuman, Dr. Rudolf Hoellrich, and Dr. Lyle Jackson work closely with Oregon's athletic staff and trainers, contributing across treatment, prevention, and performance planning. This alignment helps ensure that care is proactive and responsive to the evolving needs of elite athletes.

A PLATFORM FOR INNOVATION IN PRACTICE

Oregon's reputation for athletic innovation has been shaped, in part, by its partnership with Slocum. Over the years, Slocum surgeons have helped refine return-to-play criteria, contributed to advancements in surgical technique, and integrated new technologies like robot assisted minimally invasive and arthroscopic procedures into the athlete care model.

This collaboration hasn't relied on a single innovation or breakthrough. Its strength has come from a consistent willingness to improve, adapt, and study outcomes over time. The athletes who benefit most aren't just those in the spotlight. Walk-ons, practice squad players, and athletes in non-revenue sports receive the same coordinated care that Oregon is known for on the national stage.

MORE THAN A PROVIDER RELATIONSHIP

The Slocum-Oregon partnership is unique in its depth and durability. It is a relationship defined by integration, mutual respect, and a shared standard of excellence. Slocum has remained independently physician-owned, allowing its doctors to prioritize continuity and care over commercial interests. That autonomy has reinforced its role as a long-term partner, not just a contracted provider.

Over the last five decades, this partnership has helped Oregon athletes compete more safely and recover more effectively. But its true impact goes beyond any single recovery story or medical innovation. The collaboration has created a system in which orthopedic care, performance science, and athlete wellbeing are connected day to day, and season to season.

The origin point was a single injury and a doctor asking better questions. The result is a model that continues to evolve, supporting one of the nation's most visible athletic programs with consistency and care.

GAME 1 – OREGON 28, IDAHO 14

Aug. 31, 2024 – Eugene, Ore.

Oregon claimed its first win as a member of the Big Ten Conference and won its 20th-consecutive home opener after holding Idaho to 217 yards of offense. Dillon Gabriel completed 41-of-49 passes for 380 yards and two touchdowns, both to Tez Johnson. Johnson (12) and tight ends Terrance Ferguson (7) and Kenyon Sadiq (4) all set career highs in receptions in their first game with the new signal caller. Jordan James paced the rushing attack, leading UO with 95 yards and a touchdown. The Ducks tallied four sacks for the game, led by two from Matayo Uiagalelei, and Brandon Johnson and Nikko Reed each picked off a pass. Oregon also held Idaho to just 49 rushing yards.

GAME 2 – OREGON 37, BOISE STATE 34

Sept. 7, 2024 – Eugene, Ore.

Atticus Sappington drilled a 25-yard field goal as time expired to secure the Ducks' first win over Boise State in program history. Special teams proved to be the difference for Oregon, as Tez Johnson returned a punt for a touchdown before a 100-yard kickoff return by Noah Whittington that resulted in a touchdown by Jayden Limar after a fumble recovery. Gabriel completed 18-of-21 passes for 243 yards with touchdown passes to Evan Stewart and Traeshon Holden, adding another score on the ground. Stewart finished with five catches for 112 yards and Jordan James put together his first 100-yard rushing performance of the season, netting 102 yards. Bryce Boettcher led the UO defense for the second week in a row with nine tackles while Jordan Burch tallied his first solo sack of the season to go along with a pair of PBUs. The Ducks broke up a season-high 13 passes against the Broncos.

GAME 3 – OREGON 49, OREGON STATE 14

Sept. 14, 2024 – Corvallis, Ore.

The Ducks scored on every possession excluding end of half kneeldowns and racked up 546 yards of offense in a dominant rivalry game win. Jordan James rushed for 86 yards and a pair of touchdowns, Noah Whittington and Dillon Gabriel each ran for 64 yards and a score and Jayden Limar took a screen pass 65 yards to the house. Gabriel completed his first 15 passes of the game, finishing 20-of-24 for 291 yards, finding Traeshon Holden for a touchdown for the second game in a row. Tez Johnson led the Ducks' receiver room with seven catches for 110 yards. Oregon native Bryce Boettcher paced the UO defense with a career-high 11 tackles while Teitum Tuioti added seven stops, including two TFLs and a sack. The Ducks shutout the Beavers in the second half, limiting them to just 91 yards of offense.

GAME 4 – OREGON 34, UCLA 13

Sept. 28, 2024 – Pasadena, Calif.

Oregon claimed its first Big Ten conference win in dominant fashion coming off of the bye week. Dillon Gabriel finished the game 31-of-41 for 280 yards and three touchdowns, two of which went to Tez Johnson, who tallied 121 yards on 11 catches. Jordan James rushed 20 times for 103 yards and a touchdown and Traeshon Holden caught his third touchdown pass in as many games, finishing with five receptions for 57 yards. Nikko Reed led the defense with six tackles while Kobe Savage and Derrick Harmon finished with five apiece. Jordan Burch, Jeffrey Bassa and Matayo Uiagalelei each tallied solo sacks and Tysheem Johnson and Bryce Boettcher logged their first interceptions of the season. The Ducks outgained UCLA, 431-172, and did not allow the Bruins to score an offensive touchdown.

GAME 5 – OREGON 31, MICHIGAN STATE 10

UO improved to 5-0 by winning its first conference game at Autzen Stadium as a member of the Big Ten against the Spartans. Jordan James rushed for a career-high 166 yards and a touchdown as the combined for 213 yards on the ground. Dillon Gabriel added a rushing touchdown himself and finished 20-of-32 through the air for 257 yards and two scores. Tez Johnson tallied ten receptions for 84 yards and touchdown and Terrance Ferguson added 82 yards, highlighted by a 62 yard catch-and-run. The Ducks held Michigan State scoreless through the first three quarters thanks to a season-high five sacks. Teitum Tuioti led the defense with seven tackles while Jordan Burch tallied four stops, 2.5 sacks and a fumble recovery after Jamaree Caldwell punched the ball out on the goal line to keep MSU off the scoreboard early.

GAME 6 – OREGON 32, OHIO STATE 31

Oct. 12, 2024 – Eugene, Ore.

Oregon came out on top in a battle between top-three teams in front of the largest crowd in Autzen Stadium history. The final seven scoring plays of the night all resulted in lead changes, including a 27-yard rushing touchdown by Dillon Gabriel to put the Ducks up in the fourth quarter. After Ohio State regained the lead, Gabriel led the Ducks down the field to set up the go-ahead field goal by Atticus Sappington with 1:47 to play. A key sack by Matayo Uiagalelei kept the Buckeyes out of field goal range on the final drive and helped secure a titanic win for the Ducks. Gabriel completed 23-of-34 passes for 341 yards and two touchdowns. Evan Stewart and Tez Johnson each caught seven passes and a score, totaling 149 and 75 yards, respectively. Tysheem Johnson and Kobe Savage each made eight tackles to lead the Ducks while Uiagalelei tallied two TFLs and five tackles to go along with his crucial sack.

Oct. 18, 2024 – West Lafayette, Ind.

Oregon earned its first shutout since 2012 and first on the road since 1992 in its first road test against a traditional Big Ten opponent. The defense delivered in a big way, tallying a season-high 10 TFLs to go with three sacks and a pair of forced turnovers, including an interception by Kam Alexander on Purdue's final possession to clinch the shutout. Jordan James rushed for the first two touchdowns of the night, finishing with 50 yards on 10 carries. Dillon Gabriel completed 21-of-25 passes for 290 yards and two touchdowns, finding Tez Johnson and Noah Whittington for scores. Teitum Tuioti led the Ducks with six tackles and a sack and Bryce Boettcher added five stops of his own. Matayo Uiagalelei and Devon Jackson each tallied two TFLs and a sack, while Jackson and Jeffrey Bassa both forced fumbles.

GAME 8 – OREGON 38, ILLINOIS 9

Playing as the No. 1 team in the country for the first time since 2012, Oregon improved to 8-0 with a wire-to-wire win over Illinois. Dillon Gabriel accounted for a season-high four total touchdowns, finishing 18-of-26 for 291 yards and three scores through the air and adding another touchdown with a seven-yard rush. Jordan James rushed for a team-high 83 yards, while Noah Whittington added 56 yards and a touchdown before catching a touchdown pass from Gabriel. Tez Johnson led UO receivers with six catches for 102 yards and a touchdown, and Justius Lowe hauled in his first-career TD in the first quarter, finishing with two catches for 51 yards. Tysheem Johnson posted a season-high ten tackles and nabbed his second interception of the season while the Ducks' defense tallied four sacks and seven TFLs. The Ducks outgained the Illini, 527-293, in the battle between top-20 teams.

GAME 8

YEAR IN REVIEW

GAME 9 - OREGON 38, MICHIGAN 17

Nov. 2, 2024 - Ann Arbor, Mich.

The Ducks remained unbeaten after a convincing victory in the Big House. Jordan James rushed 23 times for 117 yards, including the game-icing touchdown in the fourth quarter, and Noah Whittington twice on the ground himself. Dillon Gabriel completed 22-of-34 passes for 294 yards and a touchdown, finding Evan Stewart in the endzone to open the scoring. Traeshon Holden put together his best game as a Duck, tallying six receptions for a career-high 149 yards. The defense held the reigning national champions to just 270 yards of offense, including only 105 rushing yards. Bryce Boettcher, Kobe Savage and Jabbar Muhammad all tallied a team-high seven tackles while nine Ducks combined for eight TFLs in front of the largest crowd to ever watch Oregon football.

GAME 10 - OREGON 39, MARYLAND 18

Nov. 9, 2024 - Eugene, Ore.

Dillon Gabriel etched his name in the college football record books as the Ducks improved to 10-0 for the third time in program history. Gabriel completed 23-of-34 for 183 yards and three touchdowns to become the NCAA all-time leader in total touchdowns. Gabriel tied Case Keenum's mark of 179 career touchdowns with a nine yard pass to Terrance Ferguson in the second quarter, then connected with offensive lineman Gernorris Wilson in the third to claim the record as his own. Noah Whittington led the Ducks in rushing with 77 yards on 13 carries, while Evan Stewart paced UO receivers with six catches for 56 yards and the final touchdown of the night. Jordan Burch did a bit of everything for the Ducks, tallying three tackles, a strip-sack that Brandon Johnson returned 62 yards for a touchdown, two PBUs and a 36-yard rush on a fake punt that set up Gabriel's record-setting score. Kobe Savage led all UO defenders with nine tackles.

The Ducks clinched their spot in the Big Ten Championship for the first time in program history in a defensive battle at Wisconsin. Jordan James scored Oregon's lone field goal of the night to tie the game in the fourth quarter, and Atticus Sappington accounted for the other 10 UO points, hitting all three of his field goal tries, including the eventual game-winner. James finished with 25 carries for 121 yards, pushing him over the 1,000 yard mark for the first time in his career. Dillon Gabriel completed 22-of-31 passes for 218 yards, finding Evan Stewart ten times for 92 yards and Terrance Ferguson three times for 52 yards, including a crucial 15-yard completion on 4th down to set up James' touchdown. Bryce Boettcher led the defense with nine tackles and Matayo Uiagalelei made five stops and added a sack before picking off his first-career pass on the final Wisconsin possession to seal the Ducks' win.

GAME 12 - OREGON 49, WASHINGTON 21

Nov. 30, 2024 - Eugene, Ore.

After achieving something only done once previously in school history, the Oregon football team entered the postseason looking to do things it's never done before. The Ducks completed a perfect 12-0 regular season for just the second time ever, matching the 2010 team's feat with a 49-21 win over Washington. The Ducks finished off their perfect regular season by avenging their only two losses from the 2023 season, both to the Huskies. Dan Lanning earned his first win in four tries over UW, behind an incredibly balanced offensive effort and a defense that tied the school single-game record with 10 sacks. Dillon Gabriel was 16-of-23 passing for 209 yards and two touchdowns, and he also had one of the Ducks' five rushing touchdowns. Another of the team's seniors, Bryce Boettcher, had 11 tackles to lead the UO defense, including one of Oregon's 10 sacks — tying the school record set against Stanford in 2004. Jordan Burch returned from injury to lead the UO defense with 2.5 sacks, and Matayo Uiagalelei had two.

GAME 13 – OREGON 45, PENN STATE 37

Tumult has been the story around college football in recent years. Between player movement and conference realignment, NIL and the transfer portal, the defining feature of the national landscape has been change. No program has navigated the rough waters as well as Oregon. Elsewhere, change resulted in setbacks of one kind or another. The Ducks, meanwhile, just keep on winning. Three days after signing a top-five recruiting class and a week after completing the second perfect regular season in school history, the UO football team was crowned champions of the Big Ten Conference, in the Ducks' first season as members. Though tense moments abounded, Oregon never trailed in a 45-37 victory over Penn State before 67,469 fans in Lucas Oil Stadium. The Ducks improved to 13-0 for the first time ever, tying the program record for wins in a single season. Dillon Gabriel was 22-of-32 passing for 283 yards, throwing four touchdowns for the first time in an Oregon uniform, and Tez Johnson caught 11 passes for 181 yards and a score. Kenyon Sadiq scored the first two touchdowns of the game, and Jordan James also scored twice, including the fourth-quarter score that gave Oregon a two-touchdown lead midway through the final period. Tysheem Johnson led the UO defense with nine tackles, and Bryce Boettcher had seven tackles with one tackle for loss. Dontae Manning's first-half interception set up James' first rushing touchdown of the day, and Nikko Reed picked off a pass in the fourth quarter to all but ice the game for Oregon.

GAME 13GAME 14 – OHIO STATE 41, OREGON 21

A year that included an unbeaten regular season, a Big Ten title and an extended run as the No. 1 team in the country came to an end for the Oregon football team at the Rose Bowl. Facing Ohio State for the second time this season, this time in a College Football Playoff quarterfinal, the Ducks were hit with an avalanche of big plays in the first half and couldn't fight back from a big early deficit. The Buckeyes won, 41-21, the only blemish on a 13-1 season for Oregon — but one that will sting deeply nonetheless. Ohio State mixed big-play offense with outstanding play up front defensively to end Oregon's season. The Ducks allowed six pass plays of 29 yards or longer in falling behind 34-0 in the second quarter, and offensively Oregon was sacked eight times and finished with minus-23 rushing yards. With running back Jordan James sidelined prior to halftime and receiver Evan Stewart unable to play at all — after being a big-play threat in Oregon's regular-season win over the Buckeyes — Traeshon Holden stepped up to lead the Ducks with seven receptions for 116 yards and two touchdowns. Dillon Gabriel finished 29-of-41 passing for 299 yards and those two touchdowns to Holden. Bryce Boettcher led the UO defense with seven tackles, and Derrick Harmon had two tackles for loss.

BY THE NUMBERS

Oregon has had a player taken in 38 of the last 39 NFL Drafts, including a run of 31 years in a row from 1986 to 2016.

10

The Ducks shattered the program record with 10 total selections in the 2025 NFL Draft, including multiple first-rounders for the fourth time in UO history in No. 21 overall pick Derrick Harmon and No. 29 overall pick Josh Conerly Jr.

UO has now had at least one first-round selection in each of the last six NFL Drafts, with Harmon and Conerly following Bo Nix (2024), Christian Gonzalez (2023), Kayvon Thibodeaux (2022), Penei Sewell (2021) and Justin Herbert (2020).

10

Ten of Oregon's 24 all-time first-round selections have been in the top 10, and the Ducks have had 11 first-round picks since 2013.

Two of the six finalists for the 2024 NFL Rookie of the Year award came out of Oregon in quarterback Bo Nix and running back Bucky Irving.

AUTZEN STADIUM

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

One of the loudest stadiums in college football, Oregon's Autzen Stadium provides a unique setting that has hosted more than 10 million football fans over the course of the last 56 seasons.

Consistently ranked among the nation's top 10 stadiums to watch a college football game, the stadium — named in honor of former Portland lumberman and philanthropist Thomas J. Autzen — provides a distinct atmosphere unlike any other collegiate facility in the country by accentuating the unique characteristics of the Pacific Northwest with an upgraded fan-friendly functionality.

Oregon owns an all-time record of 239-101-5 at Autzen Stadium, which includes a 140-85-2 mark in conference play.

142

Since Autzen Stadium expanded prior to the 2002 season, Oregon has had at least 50,000 fans for 142 of 148 home games (not including 2020).

138

The Ducks have a record of 138-24 (.852) at Autzen Stadium since 2000.

52

Oregon has scored 50 or more points 52 times in Autzen Stadium, including 32 percent (31-of-98) of home games since 2010.

UO has played seven games (6-1) inside Autzen Stadium as the nation's No. 1 ranked team, going 3-0 as the top team in the country at home in 2024.

34

The Ducks have won 34 consecutive home nonconference games entering 2025, the longest active streak in the nation.

31

Oregon has posted a .500 record or better at Autzen Stadium in 31 consecutive seasons entering 2025.

14

UO has gone undefeated at home in conference play 14 times in Autzen Stadium, including in 2024 in the Ducks' first season in the Big Ten.

The Ducks have gone undefeated at home 12 times — 1990, '98, '99, 2000, '09, '10, '13, '19, '20, '21, '23 and '24 — and have won 10 conference championships since calling Autzen home — 1994, 2000, '01, '09, '10, '11, '14, '19, '20 and '24.

BOWL HISTORY

MARCUS MARIOTA

Above: Heisman Trophy winner MARCUS MARIOTA led Oregon to a Rose Bowl record 59 points during its win over defending national champion Florida State in 2015.

Right: JUSTIN HERBERT equaled a program bowl record with three rushing touchdowns, including the game-winner late in the fourth quarter, en route to Offensive MVP honors at the 2020 Rose Bowl.

The Ducks have a program-best four bowl wins in the Rose Bowl (1917, 2012, 2015 and 2020). Oregon's three Rose Bowl wins in the last decade tied Wisconsin for the most for any school.

Oregon was one of nine Power 5 programs and the only school in the Pac-12 to have won a bowl game in the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

2020 — OREGON 28, WISCONSIN 27

2018 — OREGON 7, MICHIGAN STATE 6

Oregon has played in 24 bowl games since 2000, and has picked up more than half (10) of its 17 bowl wins during that span. Since 2007, Oregon is 10-8 in bowl games with five Rose Bowl appearances and two trips to the national championship game.
